Report on Khadi Day Celebration

Khadi Movement began in 1918 and was marked with its own changing dynamics. Initially a clear emphasis could be seen on using Khadi as an economic solution. 1934 onwards the fabric became something that villagers could use for themselves. Khadi is the heritage of India which not only provides employment opportunities to lakhs of rural artisans of our country but also promotes unity and equality. Moreover Khadi is hand-woven and handspun, skinfriendly fabric that doesnot leave any carbon footprint.

To carry forward this rich heritage of India Shri K.A.Lokapur Arts, Science and Commerce College. Athani has resolved to celebrate every Thursday as "Khadi Day" during the Academic Year 2021-22. We have received a positive response from all the faculty members. Every Thursday is a celebration of "Khadi Day". The gents staff come in Khadi Kurty and ladies staff in Khadi saris. The college has organized a Khadi exhibition cum sale of Khadi garments on 02.06.2022 to create an awareness about Khadi among students and staff. A large variety of khadi garments were exhibited in the exhibition which was liked and appreciated by students and faculty members. In the sale many faculties and students have purchased the Khadi garments.
