DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

Field visit report of 2019-20

As per the syllabus of Rani Channamma University, Belagavi for B.Sc. Vth Semester, we visited plant nursery at The Balaji Nursery, Athani on 27th September 2019 at 10:30 a.m. with 29 students.

As mentioned above, we visited "The Balaji Nursery, Athani" for the study of Plant nursery management. We also documented some of the photos during the field visit.

The B.Sc. Vth Semester students are very happy to study the Nursery management, they observed different types of samplings and also understand their scientific names. We also documented some photos during the field visit.

The staff members are also present during the visit, this is for your kind consideration-

A REPORT ON MOCK ASSEMBLY-2022

A Mock Assembly was organized by Department of political Science on 16.07.2022. Inaugurating the function Shri Aravindrao Deshpande, Chairman, College Betterment Committee said that students should indulge in healthy debate and have a good understanding on the functioning of an assembly.

Around 84 students of Arts, Science, Commerce and BBA departments have participated and created the look of an assembly. The students actively enacted the proceedings of an assembly and debated on various issues such as cleaning, maintaining and development of lake at Athani, bypass road from Athani to Miraj, Gokak, Jamakhandi, Savalagi and Bijapur, They also raised issues such as Ammajeshwari and Basaveshwar Yaar neeravari schemes, problems of govt. high school at Athani, Traffic issues at Athani etc.

Various sessions such as question hour and zero hour followed in the five hour long mock session. TV channels like TV 9, Digvijaya, TV First, public next Youtube channel were present in the function. Over 50000 views it has got within a span of 2 days after uploading. The famous daily news papers like Prajavani, Samyukta Karnataka, Kannada Prabha, Kannadamma, Vijayavaani and athani local news papers have reported this programme. With the support of management, teaching and non teaching staff of the college, this programme was a grand success.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- 1] To make students understand the assembly procedure.
- 2] To develop in students an insight into the working of assembly.
- 3] To make students consider public issues and form their opinion on them.
- 4] To train students in the technique of group discussion.
- 5] To develop in students an ability to arrive at a decision after group discussion.
- 6] To develop them in them respect and tolerance for the views of others.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

REPORT ON LAB PRACTICAL 2021-22

As per Rani Channama University Belagavi B.Sc.syllabus, Practical's are engaged in every semester. The practical's carried out as per the guidelines of the University. Every department of science makes batches of students and kept a practical's weekly bases.

The practical's demonstrated by the lab in charge and executed by the students and make a documents in the journal books. Journals are validated by the concerned faculty members and Head of the Department.

Practical's made the students hands on work and make them more enthusiastic in learning.

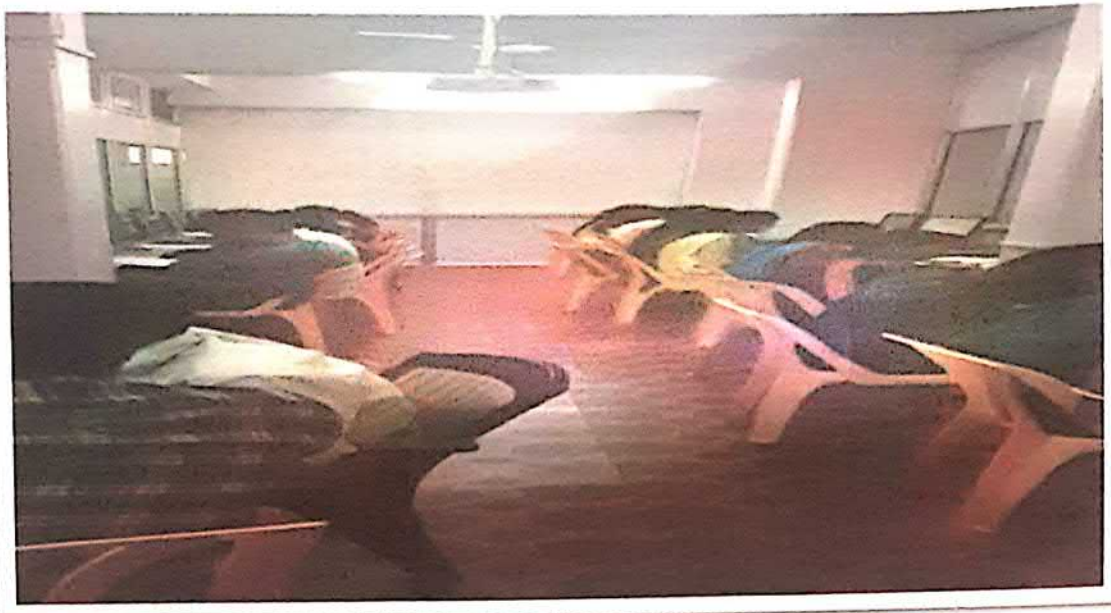

OUTCOMES :

1. Learn Scilab & Maxima Software
2. Problem solve on and calculus by using maxima software.
3. Acquire knowledge of application of Mathematics.
4. Problem solving on Real analysis.

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTERS

A REPORT ON HARDWARE COMPONENT EXHIBITION

Department of Computers organized Hardware Component Exhibition on 10-04-2019. There are more than 300 students and all our college staff were visited our exhibition to know about different components of the computer. Our department faculties are enthusiastically involved and guide the students and staff of the college. The exhibition was successful because we create awareness of computer parts to students and staff.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

Students' Seminar Report 2019-20

The department of Physics conducted students' seminar on syllabus related topics. The students were enthusiastically participated & delivered the seminar concepts. The students of B.Sc.I, II, III, IV, V and VI Semester have participated in the seminars.

The papers related to seminar topic prepared by the students were reviewed by the department faculties before their presentation and students' presented their seminars either by chalk & talk or ICT based methods.

OUTCOMES:

- The students can enrich their knowledge by giving seminars.
- It develops the confidence in the students to overcome the stage fear.
- Presenting the seminars improves the students' vocabulary and speaking skills.
- Help students to prepare material for presentation.
- It improves the students' argumentative skills and critical thinking.

① Critically appreciate the Poem "Ode to the west wind"

Introduction :-

Ode to the west wind Summary will explain the poem in a better manner. It will help you in analyzing the poem and summarizing it efficiently. Written by Percy Bysshe Shelley, the poem was written in the season of ~~Autumn~~.

It begins with the poet directly addressing the west wind. In other words, he is treating it as a force of death and decay. However, he welcomes the wind despite what it brings.

It is because the poet believes that death and decay are necessary for transformation and regeneration.

Thus, this wind will ultimately bring rejuvenation and rebirth.

Further, in ode to the west wind Summary, you will find how the poet is promoting this rebirth through his poem.

He wishes to see the same reform in society. That is to say, in both political and poetic means for a better future of society as a whole.

Ode to the west wind Summary is a brief version of the poem written by the renowned English Romantic poet, Percy Bysshe Shelley in 1819.

The poet wrote this poem in the woods outside Florence, Italy during Autumn.

The poem begins with the poet appealing to the wild west wind of autumn. He notices how the wind is scattering the dead leaves and spreading the seeds.

This will result in their nurturing in the season of Spring.

Thus, the poet labels the wind as a destroyer as well as a preserver. He calls for it to hear him by describing how the wind is responsible for stirring up violent storms. While he is calling out for its attention he keeps describing it further.

He mentions the unusual exploits of the wind and how it is responsible for waves in the big oceans and seas like the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. Once again, the poet calls out to the wind so it hears his appeal.

Ode to the west wind Summary Explains how the poet recalls his lovely relationship with the west wind in his youth.

He desires to be a dead leaf or swift cloud so the west wind would carry him thereby feeling its strength.

At last, the poet appeals to the west wind to turn him in to a lyre. This way, his words can be scattered all over the world like a dead leaf for everyone through the wind. Moreover, he also asks the wind to become him.

At last, he concludes by asking the question that if winter will arrive, the spring will also not be far behind. Thus, he states a metaphor for birth and death.

In addition, he states that there is nothing new in him decaying as it is inevitable.

Ode to the west wind Summary is a poem that shows us the power of the wind which brings a change in the natural world. Similarly, the poet wishes for reform in society. Moreover, the poem has underlying themes of optimism and hope for a better future.

②

Write a note on Rime of the Ancient Mariner.

Introduction:-

Samuel Taylor Coleridge's "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner" is about a man on a voyage by ship, who in one impulsive and heinous act, changes the course of his life and death.

The Mariner faces an inner struggle over the crime he has committed, and must understand his actions and perform his penance. He must also learn to abandon his negative views and openly accept all of God's creatures.

The voyage now becomes a journey of learning important lessons in accountability, acceptance, forgiveness, and repentance.

After the Mariner kills the Albatross, it is hung around his neck so he can understand the seriousness of his act, but he is incapable of realizing the full implications at this time.

The bird was of no danger to the Mariner or the men on the crew on their excursion. The murder was committed on a whim, with no forethought about the act or the repercussions.

The Mariner gives no explanation to the wedding guests as to why he killed the bird because he has none.

In his essay "The Sad Wisdom of the Mariner," A.M. Buchan writes "The Sad Wisdom of the Mariner," A.M. Buchan writes: "The shooting is an act, unpremeditated and unmeant, that nevertheless must be accountability for his actions so he can begin to atone for his sins (97)."

This ship and its crew face difficulties as it comes to a halt on the sea. The Mariner is angry at his fate instead of remorseful for his crime, and he curses the sea and the creatures in it.

He has not learned to cherish all of God's creations and he will pay a price for this. A ship approaches and he is dumfounded to come face to face with Death and life - In-Death.

With a roll of the dice, Death wins the lives of the crew and, Life in-Death wins the life of the Mariner. One by one the men on the ship die, leaving the Mariner alone and frightened.

He grieves only for himself at first saying "Alone on a wide sea! And never a saint took pity on My soul in agony".

For seven days and seven nights he is forced to spend time in solitary, reflecting on the events that have occurred the eyes of the dead sailors fixed on him with blame.

He states "But oh! More horrible than that that is the curse in a dead man's eye"! indicating he has begun to understand and accept his responsibility for their deaths.

Once this acceptance begins, his Solitude is no longer a punishment, but an opportunity for him to realize the exquisiteness of the universe. (3)

As he watches the water snakes he begins to perceive them differently, and suddenly their beauty becomes apparent to him for the first time.

Conclusion:-

They are no longer beastly creatures - used to be condemned, but - are creatures of God's universe to be appreciated and loved. This new insight releases him from his invisible Chains and he is able to offer a blessing for the water snakes.

The albatross falls from his neck, in to the sea, and "He is on the verge of learning that mysterious and omnipotent spirits govern his destiny".

③

Consider the play waiting for Godot as Absurd play.

Introduction :-

waiting for Godot by Samuel Beckett was originally published in French with the title En Attendant Godot in 1952 and it was later translated into English by Beckett himself in 1954. The subtitle of the play is "a tragic-comedy in two acts." The play belongs to the category of the Theatre of the Absurd which emerged during the post-world war era. It milises on the themes such as waiting, boredom, loneliness, suffering/struggle, question of existence/identity, etc. The play has four main characters and one minor character. The characters are Vladimir, Estragon, Pozzo and Lucky along with a boy messenger who appears at the end of both the acts.

The play presents two characters Vladimir (known as Didi) and Estragon (known as Gogo), waiting for the arrival of a person named Godot who never arrives. These characters are drunks and they are not sure about the identity of Godot. Since they haven't met him they are later joined by two others - Pozzo who is the master and Lucky, the slave. While waiting, both Vladimir and Estragon engage in a variety of discussions in order to pass the time. They both wear bowler hats and suits. The background or the setting is highly barren except for a tree with two leaves. The setting indicates the sterile nature of the world.

Vladimir is a Russian and Beckett presents him as the stronger and somewhat sensible person in the play. He is active, clearly an initiator, and he is the one character who is most hopeful for the entrance of Godot in the play. He consistently motivates Estragon to continue waiting and also protects him. Estragon is Spanish and is the more basic of the two. He is not concerned with either religious or philosophical matters. Estragon is dependent upon Vladimir, and essentially he performs what Vladimir tells him to do.

The play follow a symmetrical pattern or it focuses on the concept of duality - two acts characters as pairs (Vladimir and Estragon; Pozzo and Lucky; two boy messengers), repetition of dialogues, etc.

Summary of Act I

When the play begins, the scene is Court or road and the time is evening, Estragon is busy trying to take off his boot (since he has nothing else to do other than to wait for Godot).

Estragon; Nothing to be done (Remember this line which echoes the whole theme of the play and an often repeated piece. This statement sums up the attitude of humanity, the Scenario of The world etc.)

In the meantime, Vladimir enters telling Estragon that he should not give up hope since there are so many thing remaining and to be tried out. He understood that they have rejoined after a short break. Vladimir feels happy to see Estragon back. (both of them wishes to spare but they are unable to do so.)

Vladimir then enquires where Estragon spend the last night - "May One inquire where His Highness spent the night?" Then we come to know that Estragon had spent the night in a ditch and whenever he tries to sleep there, a few men comes and hits him quite ambiguous regarding the reason of this hitting but Vladimir gives an indication about it in the later part of the play).

Conclusion:

As Martin Esslin writes, "it is open to philosophical, religious and psycho logical Interpretations, yet above all. it is a poem on time, evanescence and the my seriousness of existence, the paradox of changes and stability. necessity and absurdity" (Theatre of the Absurd, 39-40)

④

Write an essay on Romanticism, Modernism and post modernism.

Introduction:-

In its intense focus on the individual consciousness, it was both a continuation of and a reaction against the Enlightenment. Romanticism emphasized the individual, the subjective, the irrational, the imaginative, the personal, the spontaneous, the emotional, the visionary, and the transcendental.

In literature, visual art, architecture, dance, and music, Modernism was a break with the past and the concurrent search for new forms of expression.

Modernism fostered a period of experimentation in the arts from the late 19th to the mid-20th century, particularly in the years following World War I.

Postmodernism, also spelled post modernism, in Western philosophy, a late 20th-century movement characterized by broad skepticism, subjectivism, or relativism; a general suspicion of reason; and an acute sensitivity to the role of ideology in asserting and maintaining political and economic power.

Romanticism :-

Romanticism was an artistic, literary, musical, and intellectual movement that originated in Europe towards the end of the 18th century, and in most areas was at its peak in the approximate period from 1800 to 1850.

Romanticism was characterized by its emphasis on emotion and individualism, clandestine literature, idealization of nature, suspicion of science and industrialization, and glorification of the past with a strong preference for the medieval rather than the classical.

It was partly a reaction to the Industrial Revolution, the social and Political norms of the Age of Enlightenment, and the Scientific rationalization of nature.

It was embodied most strongly in the visual arts, music, and literature, but had a major impact on historiography, education, Chess, Social Sciences, and the natural Sciences.

It had a significant and complex effect on politics, with romantic thinkers influencing conservatism, liberalism, radicalism, and nationalism.

The movement emphasized intense emotion as an authentic source of aesthetic experience, placing new emphasis on such emotions as fear, horror, terror and awe - especially that experienced in confronting the new aesthetic categories of the sublime and beauty of nature.

It elevated folk art and ancient custom to something noble, but also sported anarchy as a desirable characteristic.

In contrast to the Rationalism and Classicism of the Enlightenment, Romanticism revived medievalism and elements of art,

Modernism:-

Modernism is both a philosophical and arts movement that arose from broad transformations in Western society during the late 19th century and early 20th century.

The movement reflected a desire for the creation of new forms of art, philosophy, and social organization which reflected the newly emerging industrial world, including features such as urbanization, architecture, new technologies, and war.

Artists attempted to depart from traditional forms of art, which they considered outdated or obsolete.

The poet Ezra Pound's 1934 injunction to "Make it New" was the touchstone of the movement's approach.

Modernist innovations included abstract art, the stream-of-consciousness novel, montage cinema, atonal and twelve-tone music, and divisionist painting.

Postmodernism :-

Postmodernism is an intellectual stance or mode of discourse defined by an attitude of skepticism toward what it characterizes as the "grand narratives" of modernism, opposition to notions of epistemic certainty or the stability of meaning, and emphasis of socio-political power. Claims to objective fact are dismissed as naïve realism, with attention drawn to the conditional nature of knowledge claims within particular historical, political, and cultural discourses.

Thus, the postmodern outlooks is characterized self-referentiality, epistemological relativism, moral relativism, pluralism, irony, irreverence, and eclecticism, it rejects the "universal validity" of binary oppositions, stable identity, hierarchy, and categorization.

Conclusion :-

Initially emerging from a mode of literary criticism, postmodernism developed in the mid-twentieth century as a rejection of

DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

The Department of Botany has done the Survey of Saline & Alkali Soil in & around Athani with 12 B.Sc. IV Semester Students under the guidance of Asst Prof.M.S. Sarikar, Asst Prof. J.T. Shinde and Asst Prof.M.K. Khot. Students and staff visited affected areas of various villages of Athani and there we observed that many hectares of land were affected by saline, alkali, and water logging.

Objectives and Outcomes of the work;

Objectives	Outcomes
- To know the formation of Saline-Alkali soil. - To know the Chemical nature of Saline- Alkali soil. - To know the effects of Saline- Alkali soil. - To know the affected area in & around Athani. - To know the major causes of Saline-Alkali soil formation. - To know the water logging in many villages of Athani Taluku. - To know the reclamation measures for Saline- Alkali Soil.	- They understood the formation of saline-Alkali Soil. - Students knew the chemical nature of Soil. - They understood the effects of saline and alkali soil. - They observed and understand the affected area. - They understand the major causes of saline and alkali soil. - They understand the water logging. - Students knew the reclamation measures of saline and alkali soil.

Report on Assessment of drinking water quality in Athani area 2021-22

As per the syllabus of Rani Channamma University, Belagavi for B.Sc VI Semester, we conducted industrial visit at Athani sugars Limited Kempwad Unit on 19th August 2022 at 03:00 p.m. with 28 students.

As mentioned above, we visited "Athani sugars Limited Kempwad Unit" for the study analysis of drinking water. We also documented some of the photos during the industrial visit.

The B.Sc VI Semester students were actively performed the assessment tests related to drinking water. Students get knowledge about how to analyse the minerals & hardness of water during industrial visit.

Objectives	Outcomes
▪ To understand the, hardness of water. ▪ To understand the quality of water.	▪ Students understood the different parameters of drinking water. ▪ Students get the knowledge about minerals & TDS of the water

SURVEY REPORT ON
"Pros and Cons of Mobile phones in Rural area of Athani"

CONDUCTED BY

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

The Department of Physics brought a survey on "Pros and Cons of Mobile phones in rural area of Athani" with staff and students. This survey helps us a lot to understanding the local people's participation and perception about the mobile.

The technique used for this survey was data collections and one- on-one interview. Findings of this survey, the usage of mobile is more in the 15-30 age group it effects health as well as miss utilisations of timings. Directly or indirectly effecting on their studies and regular activate.

So, it should be reduced strictly and monitored by parents, mentors and teachers. Their concern helps the society health and nation socioeconomic status also.

WATER SURVEY REPORT -2021-22

The Department of chemistry has done the waste water analysis i.e. Survey of chemical consumption of Athani Lake-I and Lake-II water with 19 B.Sc. VI Semester Students under the guidance of Asst Prof.Anand Hawai, Asst Prof.Ramzan Mulla and Asst Prof.Mandakini Khatavi. Students have collected the water sample from Athani Lake-I and Lake-II. Students have done the analysis like Conductivity, pH, DO, BOD & COD in our chemistry laboratory and elemental analysis, Turbidity, TDS, Hardness, alkalinity are done by the help of Athani Sugars Limited, Kempawad.

From that result we got that which water sample is more polluted and harmful for human beings and animals and which one is less polluted?

Highly polluted water is Lake-I water.

Less polluted water is Lake-II Water.

So this project report is very helpful for us to understand, determine, and diagnose the level of water polluted and which water is safe for the living organism.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS
"FOOTWEAR INDUSTRIES IN ATHANI TALUKA"

REPORT

Department of Economics conducted minor research on Footwear Industries of Athani Taluka. In this project we conducted survey socio-economic conditions of footmakers (Cobbler). We know the production process and marketing of the produced goods in the study area and also we come to know that the problems faced by producers in the study area.

Objectives

Following are the specific Objectives of the study:

- To study the socio-economic background.
- To know the production efficiency of footwear industries in study area.
- To analyze the marketing footwear business
- To study the financial performance.
- To examine the problems faced by the business

Problems Faced by Respondents in Study Area.

The entrepreneurs face the problems while producing goods. Some of the problems are common like shortage of power, scarcity of raw materials, shortage of skilled and trained labour. Here an attempt is made to know about problems faced by the entrepreneurs during their production/business activities. Study results presented that the respondents faced the problem of power, breakdown of machinery due to old/traditional machines, management, raw materials, labour problem marketing, transport facility, and lastly respondents stated about problem of finance. Thus, it is clear from the analysis that entrepreneurs face number of problems in the study area during production/ business activities. These problems become constraints for smooth functioning of business, hence it is needed to be addressed.

Suggestions

To provide proper raw materials.

To provide uninterrupted power supply.

To improve the standard of living of people

To provide market facility.

To provide financial support.

Conclusion:

Realizing this and based on sound economic reasons, the newly industrialising countries are placing great stress in their economic planning on the development of footwear enterprises. India is no exception and rightly, the encouragement of small and medium scale industry has become a corner stone of the economic policy.

The present study relates to such of those footwear businesses operating in Athani Taluka in Belagavi district of Karnataka state.
